VII. COMMUNICATIONS

A) Letter of Paul and Cynthia Levesque re: oversized trucks traveling through downtown village residential neighborhood streets

- B) Letter of Mary Lou Sanborn re: increased amount and speed of traffic on Bay View Drive since completion of the repaving project with request to lower speed limit

Mary Lou Sanborn addressed the Traffic Committee regarding her concerns about the speed and frequency of traffic on Bay View Drive.

Vice-Chairman Meagher suggested Ms. Sanborn speak to her neighbors and see if there are others who feel the same way; and, if so, to start a petition and collect signatures and invite her neighbors to attend the next Traffic meeting.

- C) Letter of Philip and Kristina Sularz re: proposed parking restrictions on Top O Mark Drive and request for a medical exemption from any future parking restrictions implemented for their disabled son
- D) Letter of Susan Piccerelli re: opposition to proposed parking restrictions in the North Shores area
- E) Letter of Pat and Jay Holtzman re: opposition to proposed parking restrictions in the North Shores area
- F) Letter of Kevin and Carol Welch re: opposition to proposed parking restrictions in the North Shores area
- G) Letter of Keith Stavely and Kathleen Fitzgerald re: opposition to proposed parking restrictions in the North Shores area

Chairman Tighe stated that Correspondence Items C-G are from residents of the shores and that the agenda item regarding parking restrictions in the shores was tabled so it will not be brought back up unless someone requests that it be placed back on the agenda.

VII. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business before the Committee, a motion was made by Committee Member Munger and seconded by Vice-Chairman Meagher to adjourn the meeting at 6:15 PM. So unanimously voted.

Attest:

Kim Devlin
