Overview

Description:

This pathway runs north and south along the waterfront of Franklin Hollow. It is not accessible without crossing private land. There is a steep drop to a stony beach at the end of the path.

Recommendation from 1999 Report:

Because this path is not accessible from Beavertail Road, there is no priority rating given to this site.